

What is the Orchard Morris Project?

The Project has been set up to run a series of one day dance workshops in Brockham, Surrey. The aim is to encourage people to have fun and to take something away to share with their friends.

The best instructors and musicians from the South East will be available to run each workshop. You don't have to play or dance with any regular group. You can come as an individual or bring some friends.....

Fun with Early Dance & Dance Music

Andy Richards, Helen Richards
& Fiz Markham

Sat 22nd Feb 2020

Brockham Village Hall

A workshop for musicians and dancers. It will follow a similar format to those much enjoyed at Woking, Dorking and Sidmouth Folk Festival.

The workshop is divided into two halves with the musicians arriving first to practice the music and understand how the tunes fit each dance. Cost £10

Workshop - Fun with Early
Dance Music & Dances
Sat 22nd February 2020

No prior experience required, and you don't need to dress up

The workshop is divided into two halves with the musicians gathering first to practice the music for the afternoon dance workshop. Andy, Helen & Fiz really know to make playing for dance fun and will show us how to make the music just what the dancers really enjoy. In the afternoon we will learn dances from the 15th and 16th century. They are really interesting and accessible even to beginners and the emphasis will be on everyone having fun rather than aiming for perfection. Wear comfortable clothing and shoes.

Approximate Timetable with breaks for refreshments
